BANKING IN INDIA: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

New Century Publications, New Delhi, 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. 14 cms. 246pp. Banking in India has a long history and it has evolved over the years passing through various phases. The beginning of modern day banking in India can be traced to 18th century when English traders came to India. The English Agency houses in Calcutta and Bombay began to conduct banking business besides their commercial activities. Banking in India during the pre-Independence period was largely characterised by the existence of...
