Chris Elgood, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is the first of three books describing the progress of Nshila Ileloka from her birth in a remote African village to success, status and power in England. An accidental event causes the child Nshila to be befriended by the tribal witchdoctor and from him she gains occult skills. At secondary school she achieves minor successes and is then recalled by her tribe to deal with an outbreak of cattle-theft. The thief is identified and meets a curious death. She wins a scholarship to The London School of Economics, gaining a 1st Class Degree. She also achieves an MBA from The Open University. During this time she studies traditional European witchcraft and learns how to mix technology with the magic of both Africa and Europe. She is able to make things happen in a manner that is not detectable. Rumours about her skill provoke enquiries from wronged persons who seek retribution against the wrong-doer. She is gradually drawn into the role of consultant assassin and removes various evil-doers. She is never quite sure whether witchcraft or science makes the greater contribution to her success. She is extremely selective, targeting only the most villainous people. After gaining her MBA, she purchases a business that deals with weather forecasting and changes the name to The Rain Consultancy. This business is entirely legitimate and acts as a cover for less regular activity. ACCIDENTAL ASSASSIN covers her time with the witchdoctor, her adventures at school, and her time at LSE. Patrick Quinn and Mary Zonde are brought together by a love potion. The cattle-thief is eliminated. A bent policeman dies an explosive death in Trafalgar Square. A fraudster and asset-stripper falls...
