Hawthorne Books, 2015. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Megan Kruse is a young writer of raw and fearless talent and Call Me Home showcases all she can do. She writes here of harrowing lives -- of a family bent and broken by violence, where each person is desperately trying to somehow grow toward light and liberation. Just a wonderful book, in every way. --Beverly Lowry, Author of Crossed Over: A Murder, A Memoir An urgent, beautiful book about love and its consequences, set against a backdrop of the unglamorized West. These characters will lodge themselves in your imagination, stick with you long after you're done reading. A fine and original first novel. --Kevin Canty, Author of Winslow in Love I'm not sure how Megan Kruse did it....
