Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Sermons, on the Mosaic Account of the Creation: The Serpent's Temptation to Our First Parents, and on Their Exclusion From the Garden of Eden It is said in our text, in the beginning God created the heaven and the earth, i. e. before there was any material existence - heaven and earth comprehending the globe on which we dwell, and all the heavenly bodies which we behold, and of which we have any knowledge whatever: - For, when it is said, God made two great lights to rule the day and the night, it is added, He made the stars also. Before this, it appears, there was no creation, excepting that of the angels, who are spirits. That these had their existence before this world, is evident from what God says to Job respecting the creation of the world, in his solemn address to him, Job. xxxviii. 6, 7. Whereupon are the foundations there of fastened? Or who laid the corner stone thereof, when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? When we attend strictly to the holy scriptures, and to the manifest sense and import of them, we find there is much reason to conclude, there never was, or will be any other creation, excepting that of the angels, than what was done and completed in those six days, the work of each one of which is mentioned in the chapter before us. All the infinitely important ends of creation, and of divine providence, are to be answered in God's government over the angels, over the several objects, which were created in six days. Of...
