Reviews

It is really an remarkable ebook that we actually have ever read through. I actually have study and i also am confident that i am going to gonna study once more yet again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Usborne Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Life will never be the same for Red Porter. He s a kid growing up around black car grease, white fence paint, and the backward attitudes of the folks who live in his hometown: Stony Gap, Virginia. And when Red s daddy dies, he s left with his younger brother, his mama, and some hard decisions. With their money dwindling, Red does everything he can to keep the family business - a gas station, repair shop and convenience store - afloat. But when he uncovers some of the racial injustices that have been happening in Stony Gap since before he was born, Red is faced with unsettling questions about the legacy behind his family s shop, and everything he s fighting for. And through his friendships with some unlikely characters, Red starts to see there s a whole lot more than car motors and rusty fenders that need fixing in his world. This is a new title from American National Book Award-winning author, Kathy Erskine (Mockingbird). This is a thought-provoking historical fiction tackling the important themes of race and responsibility in 70s America, but with elements that resonate on a wider scale. It has strong appeal for book clubs.
