Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Out Where the World Begins: A Story of a Far Country A little caravan of shaggy ponies and unkempt camels of uncertain age, which had come from the templed hills of Eastern China and carried their burdens of food and supplies for the expectant traveler over the mountains and deserts of Northern China, crossed the line that separates China from Tibet in following the trail to Lhasa. It was a sudden transition. The tile and straw roofs of Chinese houses, the springless carts of Chinese roads and the many other signs that forever make China distinct seemed to have vanished.
