(d) The post commander should not detail the property officer for other duty without permission from the Chief Signal Officer of the Army, except in case of emergency. In the absence of the post commander he would, if senior officer present, assume the duties of post commander by reason of such seniority, in addition to his duties as property officer. (e) When practicable, the post commander will detail the necessary enlisted men to carry on the work of the property depot and repair shop, and do everything that is possible to expedite the work at the depot and shop. The services of clerks, packers, and other civilian employees at general supply depots will not be utilized for post duties in any manner. 416. The...
