Second Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, December 15, 1911. Hon. David J. Lewis, House of Representatives. My Dear Sir: In reply to your letter of the 9th Instant, requesting further information with reference to postal-car pay, I have to advise that the gross pay of 44, 798, 838. 95 does not include pay for car space. The amount paid for car space during the year ended June 30, 1908, was 4, 567, 366. 25. Relative to your second inquiry, as to what ratio the car-space pay should be assigned to the low-pay class--i. e. . over 48, 000 pounds--I have to inform you that I am unable to state what that ratio was for the year 1908, but I have made a tabulation of the conditions existing on December 1, 1911, and find that 54. 12 per cent of the railway post office car pay in effect...
