Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Ceremonies of the Mass: Arranged Conformably to the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer; The Ceremonies of Low Mass; The Ceremonies of High Mass No one will seriously contend that the rubrics of the Prayer Book are so full and explicit that no further directions are required for rendering its offices. The many ceremonial and devotional guides which have been drawn up for the use of the clergy, from Bishop Andrewes Notes, down to the elaborate work attributed to Canon Liddon, and subsequently, are ample evidence of how inadequate has been felt to be the guidance provided by the mere letter of the rubrics. Indeed it is quite impossible to render any office of the Prayer Book if regard be paid only to the bare directions therein contained. And, as a matter of fact, there never has been a Bishop or Priest who has not freely supplemented the directions of the Prayer Book, either from his own sense of the fitness of things or from such knowledge of the Church's traditional ceremonial as he possessed. Therefore no apology whatever is offered in presenting these volumes, as they are simply an attempt to interpret the rubrics of our Communion Office where they are ambiguous and where they are insufficient to provide further guidance by reference to the ancient ceremonial customs of the Church. Of the need of manuals of instruction in the duties of the sacred ministry there can be no question. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
